ABOUT THE MINNESOTA CERTIFICATION BOARD:

The Minnesota Certification Board (MCB) is a nonprofit organization that administers certifications for a variety of professions including prevention professionals, alcohol and drug counselors, and peer recovery specialists. MCB is the Minnesota member board of the International Certification and Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC). IC&RC is the global leader in the credentialing of prevention, substance use treatment, and recovery professionals. Organized in 1981, IC&RC represents over 50,000 professionals and has member boards across the United States and internationally. For more information about IC&RC, visit www.internationalcredentialing.org.

REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES FOR RECERTIFICATION

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Recertification record keeping is the responsibility of the certified professional. All recertification documents must be submitted together. Keep copies of everything submitted.
2. Education and training used to fulfill the requirements of recertification must adhere to the Minnesota Certification Board’s Education Policy (Appendix A).
3. Education for recertification must have been acquired no earlier than two years prior to the applicant's current expiration date.
4. All continuing education must be approved by the MCB. Continuing education may be approved in advance OR applicants may elect to request approval of their continuing education when applying for recertification. If continuing education that is submitted for approval at the time of recertification does not meet MCB requirements, the applicant may be deemed to be deficient in meeting the requirements for recertification and need to request an extension while additional continuing education is completed.
5. Education must be verified to be approved. Proper verification (e.g., certificate of completion, letter of attendance, transcript, etc.) must include date of training, number of hours completed, title of training, name of sponsoring organization, and your name.
6. Due to MCB’s commitment to sound ethical behavior by certified professionals, six hours of MCB-approved education on professional ethics and responsibilities are mandated as part of the total hours of continuing education required.
7. Your credential must be in good standing in order to be eligible for recertification.
8. If you have more than one credential, please pay the full fee for your first credential. You may deduct 10% off of each additional credential you are recertifying.

ACCEPTABLE CONTINUING EDUCATION POLICY

Continuing education must be in alignment with the Minnesota Certification Board’s Education Policy (Appendix A). The Minnesota Certification Board accepts the following types of continuing education:

- College and University Credit-bearing Courses that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- Workshops, seminars, institutes, academies, conferences, and in-services that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- On-demand/Recorded Events (e.g., webinars and conferences), Online Training/Course (non-credit bearing), Text-based Courses, Digital Courses, Home Study, etc. that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- CPR/First Aid are acceptable for up to six (6) hours of continuing education.
- Up to 50% of the education hours for recertification can be met through the following alternatives to formal education:
 - Teaching/Training - Hours spent in teaching and/or training at educational events related to the IC&RC domains specific to the credential can be applied to continuing education hours. The number of contact hours applicable is equal to the number of contact hours for the event. The maximum hours allowed for teaching/training during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.
 - Publishing - Publishing more than 4,000 words in a journal or book in an area related to the IC&RC domains specific to the credential can be counted as the equivalent of twelve (12) contact hours.

Minnesota Certification Board Recertification Packet

The maximum hours allowed for publishing during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.

- Conference Presentation - The hours spent presenting at a state or national conference for credentialed professionals can be used as the equivalent number of contact hours for continuing education. The number of contact hours applicable is equal to the length of time of the presentation. The maximum hours allowed for conference presentations during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.

All continuing education must be documented. Applicants are responsible for acquiring and submitting documentation of attendance, the number of contact hours, instructor/provider information, dates, and content descriptions. Transcripts, certificates of completion, written verification from the provider, and other documentation may be accepted. For additional details, please see the Education Policy.

The Minnesota Certification Board does not accept self-guided learning, therapeutic education, participation in self-help meetings, general staff meetings, supervision, staff rounds, or case management as continuing education.

CODE OF ETHICS

All applicants must verify that they have reviewed, read, and will uphold in their practice, the current MCB Code of Ethical Conduct for the specific credential(s) being renewed. Copies of the current MCB Code of Ethical Conduct for each credential can be found on the MCB website at www.mcboard.org.

CONSENT AND RELEASE FORM

All applicants for recertification must sign and date a Consent and Release Form.

EXPIRATION OF CREDENTIALS

Expiration dates for credentials are printed on the certificate for your credential. Recertification is considered late if it is postmarked after your expiration date. If recertification is not completed prior to the expiration date, your certification is expired. Once expired, you may not represent yourself as a certified professional.

EXTENSIONS

If applicants are unable to complete their recertification process prior to the expiration, an extension may be granted if compelling circumstances exist. Extensions are granted only for family crisis situations or severe medical conditions which severely limit normal activities and are handled on a case-by-case basis. Contact MCB directly, in writing, to request an extension.

LAPSED CERTIFICATION/REINSTATEMENT

If you wish to become recertified after your certificate has lapsed, you may be eligible to a reinstatement, which includes a reinstatement fee and bringing all renewal fees, continuing education, and other requirements up to date.

- If it is within 30 days of your recertification date, you will be assessed a $30 late fee. You would also be responsible for any missed fees and continuing education requirements.
- If you have missed your recertification date by 1 month to 1 year, you will be assessed a $100 reinstatement fee. You would also be responsible for any missed fees and continuing education requirements.

Minnesota Certification Board Recertification Packet

- If you have missed your recertification date by 1 year to 2 years, you will be assessed a $250 reinstatement fee. You would also be responsible for any missed fees and continuing education requirements.
- If your certification has lapsed for more than two years, your file will be closed and you will not be eligible to reinstate your credential. You would be required to apply for a new credential, meeting the current requirements for the credential at that time.

INACTIVE STATUS

A credential may be put into inactive status for up to two years. Requests for inactive status must be submitted in writing prior to the expiration date of the credential. Professionals will be responsible for meeting recertification requirements when the full two years active status has lapsed. The fee for inactive status is $100.

EMERITUS STATUS

MCB has established an Emeritus Status to accommodate certified professionals who are retired from the work force, but wish to maintain a connection to MCB. Approval of Emeritus Status is at the discretion of MCB. Applicants will be notified by MCB of the approval or denial of emeritus status via email approximately 7 to 10 business days after the request is received.

Eligibility for Emeritus Status:

1. Certified and in good standing
2. At least fifty-five (55) years of age
3. Minimum of ten years of certification without lapse in certification
4. Retiring with no intention of returning to any form of addiction-related employment

Procedure for obtaining Emeritus Status:

1. Request Emeritus Status in writing from MCB
2. Include documentation for eligibility with the request
3. Pay $60.00 Emeritus Status fee every two years
4. No continuing education is required for this status

Certified professional who are approved for Emeritus Status will receive a certificate(s) from MCB for all credentials held indicating the change to Emeritus Status on the certificate(s).

INTERNATIONAL CERTIFICATES

Addiction Professionals who hold a reciprocal level credential through MCB will automatically be issued an international certifications seal on the Minnesota Certification Board certificate. MCB has added the IC&RC seal to your certificate indicating the international status of your certification. If you would like to receive a separate certificate from the IC&RC, an order form to obtain one is available directly from the IC&RC. The International Certificates are: ADCR-MN = ICADC, AACR-MN = ICAADC, CCSR = ICCS, CPPR = ICPS, CCJP = ICCJP, CPRSR = ICPR, CCDP = ICCDP, and CCDP-Diplomate = ICCDPD.

The international certificate provides recognition of your status as an internationally certified addiction professional. International certification for professionals is required by the Federal Department of Transportation (DOT) for recognition as a Substance Abuse Professional (SAP).

APPEAL PROCESS

Test results may not be appealed. However, you may file an appeal to the Board of MCB if you believe some aspect of the application process was unfair or if mistakes were made by the MCB staff. For example, you could ask the Board to review the staff's decision about your educational qualifications, your residency or your internship experience. The purpose of appeal is to determine if MCB staff accurately, adequately and fairly reviewed applicant's file. If you wish to appeal, you must write to MCB within 30 days when you were notified of the staff's action. The appeal letter must be postmarked no later than thirty days after the staff action. The written appeal will be sent to the MCB Board; Board members will review the action that is being appealed. Applicant will be notified in writing of the decision of the MCB Board.

Appendix A EDUCATION POLICY

The Minnesota Certification Board defines education as formal, structured instruction that is aligned with the IC&RC domains for a specific credential. This definition and the subsequent information apply to education requirements necessary for initial certification and continuing education requirements.

- One clock hour of education is equal to (50) minutes of continuous instruction.
- One college/university credit (semester system) is the equivalent of 15 contact hours
- Education must be specifically related to the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the tasks within the IC&RC domains for the specific credential.
- All education must be documented. Applicants are responsible for acquiring and submitting documentation of attendance, the number of contact hours, instructor/provider information, dates, and content descriptions. Transcripts, certificates of completion, written verification from the provider, and other documentation may be accepted.

The Minnesota Certification Board recognizes the following formats for education:

- Synchronous/Live Format: Synchronous/Live events occur in real-time. They may be delivered in person or electronically (e.g., webinar, virtual meeting, etc.). Participants have the ability to interact directly and immediately with the instructor(s) for the duration of the event.
- Asynchronous Format: Asynchronous learning does not occur in real-time. Examples may include on-demand/recorded events (e.g., webinars and conferences), text-based courses, digital courses, home study, etc. Participants generally do not have the ability to interact directly and immediately with the instructor.
- Hybrid Format: Education offered via a hybrid format is any education that combines live education and distance education/home study.

Acceptable sources of education are listed below. Education obtained through a source other than those listed must be submitted to MCB for approval.

- College and University Credit-bearing Courses that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Courses must be offered by a regionally-accredited institution of higher education. Courses must appear on a transcript. Credit is not allowed for any audited college or university courses. A course syllabus may be requested.
- Workshops, seminars, institutes, academies, conferences, and in-services that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Applicants must be able to provide verification of completion including the title of the education event, instructor name and credentials, sponsoring organization, course description and/or learning outcomes, relevance to the domains, date(s) of the event, and clock hours.
- On-demand/Recorded Events (e.g., webinars and conferences), Online Training/Course (non-credit bearing), Text-based Courses, Digital Courses, Home Study, etc. that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Applicants must be able to provide verification of completion including the title of the event or course, instructor/developer name and credentials, sponsoring organization, course description and/or learning outcomes, relevance to the domains, date(s) of completion, and clock hours. Evidence of completing a post-test may be requested.

Minnesota Certification Board Recertification Packet

The Minnesota Certification Board maintains processes for providers to preapprove education offerings. Education offerings that have been preapproved will state “Minnesota Certification Board Approved Education Hours” on completion verification documents. Education offerings that have been preapproved shall be guaranteed to meet Minnesota Certification Board education requirements.

The following are not accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board toward initial certification or continuing education requirements:

- Self-guided learning
- Therapeutic education
- Participation in self-help meetings
