Minnesota Certification Board
Certified Peer Recovery Specialist (CPRS) Forensic Endorsement

The Peer Recovery Specialists with the Forensic Endorsement are individuals with personal lived experience related to substance use disorder and the criminal justice system. A peer recovery specialist with forensic endorsement provides support to individuals with substance use, or co-occurring mental health and the criminal justice system related challenges where peer support can assist individuals in their commitment to achieving and maintaining recovery and wellness using their own lived experience. Peer Recovery Specialists with forensic endorsement ask questions, are advocates, offer insight, and help participants as they become resourceful, and capable of choosing what is best for them.

Minnesota Certification Board

ABOUT PEER RECOVERY SPECIALISTS- FORENSIC ENDORSEMENT

The Peer Recovery Specialists with the Forensic Endorsement are individuals with personal lived experience related to substance use disorder and the criminal justice system. A peer recovery specialist with forensic endorsement provides support to individuals with substance use and/or mental health and the criminal justice system related challenges where peer support can assist individuals in their commitment to achieving and maintaining recovery and wellness using their own lived experience. Peer Recovery Specialists with forensic endorsement help a person become ready and willing to seek treatment (if needed) and enter recovery by helping the person explore their options for recovery or treatment and assist to navigate the criminal justice system. Peer Recovery Specialists with forensic endorsement are advocates, offer insight, and help participants as they become whole, resourceful in choosing what is best for them.

Peer Recovery Specialists with forensic endorsement use a strengths-based approach helping individuals find and utilize their values, assets, and strengths while supporting them in achieving wellness. They recognize that it is normal for recovering individuals to have gaps in their skills or development. The role of the specialist is to help individuals recognize and fill these gaps with the skills needed. Peer Recovery services with forensic endorsement focus on the present and future and are based on partnership with the individual in the criminal justice system.

The role of Peer Recovery Specialists with forensic endorsement can be viewed on a continuum of services and falls between the role of recovery support individuals and the substance abuse or co-occurring mental health counselors, and the justice system. The role of the Peer Recovery Specialist with forensic endorsement has emerged from the recognition of a need to reconnect substance use, or co-occurring with mental health treatment, and the criminal justice system to the larger continuum of recovery management. The peer is not a sponsor or a therapist but rather a role model, mentor, advocate, and motivator.

The Certified Peer Recovery Specialist - Forensic Endorsement may lend itself to the workforce crisis facing the substance use, mental health, and justice system field today. By the identification of these individuals who are in the recovery community and justice system, a pool of recovery and forensic experts will be created, some of whom may choose to go on to work in a treatment setting, corrections, probation, community wellness programs, and/or the justice system in various capacities.

Formal post-secondary education is not a requirement for obtaining the peer recovery-forensic endorsement.

Peer Recovery - Forensic Endorsement Domains:

1. Advocacy
2. Mentoring and Education
3. Recovery and Wellness Support
4. Professional and Ethical Responsibility

FORM 2

CODE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT FOR CERTIFIED PEER RECOVERY SPECIALIST FORENSIC ENDORSEMENT

Principle: Personal Wellness and Recovery

My primary obligation and responsibility is my own wellness and recovery. I will seek appropriate resources and support to maintain my wellness and recovery. If my wellness or recovery is impacted in a way that negatively affects my ability to provide peer recovery services to others, I am expected to prioritize my own self-care before serving others.

Principle: Sharing My Lived Experience

I will share my lived experiences only when it is believed to be beneficial to the individuals that I serve.

Principle: Honoring Personal Recovery Pathways

I will value all individuals seeking recovery and will honor their right to self-select their own recovery pathway.

Principle: Confidentiality

I will respect the privacy of those I serve. I am responsible for being aware of and in compliance with all applicable State and Federal guidelines, regulations, statutes, and agency policies related to confidentiality.

I am a mandated reporter and will report abuse, neglect, or maltreatment in accordance with the law.

Principle: Non-Discrimination

I will provide recovery support services regardless of someone's age, gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, marital status, political belief, language, socioeconomic status or mental or physical condition.

If differences that impact the motivation for recovery occur, I will seek consultation and, if necessary, make referral to another Certified Peer Recovery Specialist Forensic Endorsement.

Principle: Conduct

I will act in accordance with the law, employer policies, and professional standards.

I will never use physical force, verbal, or emotional abuse; intimidate, threaten, manipulate, harass, or make unwarranted promises of benefits.

I will fairly and accurately represent myself and my capabilities to the individuals that I serve and the community.

I will not accept money or items of significant value from individuals that I serve.

I will not lend to or borrow from the individuals that I serve.

I will not enter into dual relationships/boundary issues or commitments that conflict with the interests of individuals that I serve. This applies to both in person and electronic/social media interactions or relationships.

Minnesota Certification Board Certified Peer Recovery Specialist (CPRS) Forensic Endorsement

I understand that there may be times when a dual relationship is unavoidable. While dual relationships may make it difficult to maintain appropriate professional boundaries, it is my professional responsibility to assume the full burden for setting clear, appropriate, and culturally responsive boundaries.

I will not engage in romantic/sexual activities or intimate relations with individuals that I serve and/or families that I serve. This applies to both in person and electronic/social media interactions or relationships.

I will not engage in romantic/sexual activities or romantic/sexual contact with individuals I have formerly served and/or families I have formerly served at any point after terminating services. This applies to both in person and electronic/social media interactions or relationships.

I will not provide services to individuals and/or families with whom I have had a prior romantic/sexual or intimate relationship. This applies to both in person and electronic/social media interactions or relationships.

I will not engage in harassment of any kind with anyone, which is defined as a single act or multiple occurrences of verbal, nonverbal, or physical actions that are known to be unwelcome or that are of the severity to be perceived as harassment by a reasonable person. Harassment includes, but is not limited to, sexual, electronic/social media, physical, personal, discriminatory, psychological, and bullying.

Principle: Integrity

I will not discontinue services to an individual without their knowledge and will make a referral for continued services when appropriate.

I will report violations of the Code of Ethics by other Certified Peer Recovery Specialists Forensic Endorsement to the appropriate certifying entity.

I will cooperate with the Minnesota Certification Board regarding any investigation or inquiry in a timely and honest manner.

Principle: Conflict of Interest

I will not use my role as a CPRS-FE to promote any treatment, procedure, product, or service, which would prioritize my personal gain over the benefit of the individuals that I serve.

Principle: Scope of Practice

I will not perform services outside of my area of training, expertise, competence, or scope of practice.

Principle: Personal Development

I will improve my recovery and forensic endorsement service knowledge and skills through ongoing education, training, and supervision.

Principle: Professional Standards

I will meet and comply with all terms, conditions, or limitations of my certification and endorsement(s).

I will stay knowledgeable of all current statutes, rules, and other professional standards relevant to practice as a Certified Peer Recovery Specialist Forensic Endorsement in the state of Minnesota.

Minnesota Certification Board Certified Peer Recovery Specialist (CPRS) Forensic Endorsement

I understand that if I hold a certification, license, or other credential to practice as a professional related or unrelated to peer recovery forensic endorsement, I will alert the Minnesota Certification Board if my credential has been suspended, revoked, placed on probation, etc. or if any other type of discipline is imposed.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Certified Peer Recovery Specialist Forensic Endorsement Code of Ethical Conduct. I will, adhere to and honor this code in my professional and personal dealings.

Appendix B EDUCATION POLICY

The Minnesota Certification Board defines education as formal, structured instruction that is aligned with the IC&RC domains for a specific credential. This definition and the subsequent information apply to education requirements necessary for initial certification or endorsement and continuing education requirements.

- One clock hour of education is equal to (50) minutes of continuous instruction.
- One college/university credit (semester system) is the equivalent of 15 contact hours
- Education must be specifically related to the knowledge and skills necessary to perform the tasks within the IC&RC domains for the specific credential.
- All education must be documented. Applicants are responsible for acquiring and submitting documentation of attendance, the number of contact hours, instructor/provider information, dates, and content descriptions. Transcripts, certificates of completion, written verification from the provider, and other documentation may be accepted.

The Minnesota Certification Board recognizes the following formats for education:

- Synchronous/Live Format: Synchronous/Live events occur in real-time. They may be delivered in person or electronically (e.g., webinar, virtual meeting, etc.). Participants have the ability to interact directly and immediately with the instructor(s) for the duration of the event.
- Asynchronous Format: Asynchronous learning does not occur in real-time. Examples may include on-demand/recorded events (e.g., webinars and conferences), text-based courses, digital courses, home study, etc. Participants generally do not have the ability to interact directly and immediately with the instructor.
- Hybrid Format: Education offered via a hybrid format is any education that combines live education and distance education/home study.

Acceptable sources of education are listed below. Education obtained through a source other than those listed must be submitted to MCB for approval.

- College and University Credit-bearing Courses that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Courses must be offered by a regionally accredited institution of higher education. Courses must appear on a transcript. Credit is not allowed for any audited college or university courses. A course syllabus may be requested.
- Workshops, seminars, institutes, academies, conferences, and in-services that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Applicants must be able to provide verification of completion including the title of the education event, instructor name and credentials, sponsoring organization, course description and/or learning outcomes, relevance to the domains, date(s) of the event, and clock hours.
- On-demand/Recorded Events (e.g., webinars and conferences), Online Training/Course (non-credit bearing), Text-based Courses, Digital Courses, Home Study, etc. that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential may be accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board. Applicants must be able to provide verification of completion including the title of the event or course, instructor/developer name and credentials, sponsoring organization, course description and/or learning outcomes, relevance to the domains, date(s) of completion, and clock hours. Evidence of completing a post-test may be requested.

Minnesota Certification Board Certified Peer Recovery Specialist (CPRS) Forensic Endorsement

The Minnesota Certification Board maintains processes for providers to preapprove education offerings. Education offerings that have been preapproved will state “Minnesota Certification Board Approved Education Hours” on completion verification documents. Education offerings that have been preapproved shall be guaranteed to meet Minnesota Certification Board education requirements.

The following are not accepted by the Minnesota Certification Board toward initial certification or continuing education requirements:

- Self-guided learning
- Therapeutic education
- Participation in self-help meetings

ACCEPTABLE CONTINUING EDUCATION POLICY

Continuing education must be in alignment with the Minnesota Certification Board's Education Policy (Appendix B). The Minnesota Certification Board accepts the following types of continuing education:

- College and University Credit-bearing Courses that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- Workshops, seminars, institutes, academies, conferences, and in-services that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- On-demand/Recorded Events (e.g., webinars and conferences), Online Training/Course (non-credit bearing), Text-based Courses, Digital Courses, Home Study, etc. that are aligned with the IC&RC domains specific to the credential.
- CPR/First Aid are acceptable for up to six (6) hours of continuing education.
- Up to 50% of the education hours for recertification can be met through the following alternatives to formal education:
 - Teaching/Training - Hours spent in teaching and/or training at educational events related to the IC&RC domains specific to the credential can be applied to continuing education hours. The number of contact hours applicable is equal to the number of contact hours for the event. The maximum hours allowed for teaching/training during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.
 - Publishing - Publishing more than 4,000 words in a journal or book in an area related to the IC&RC domains specific to the credential can be counted as the equivalent of twelve (12) contact hours. The maximum hours allowed for publishing during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.
 - Conference Presentation - The hours spent presenting at a state or national conference for credentialed professionals can be used as the equivalent number of contact hours for continuing education. The number of contact hours applicable is equal to the length of time of the presentation. The maximum hours allowed for conference presentations during each two-year recertification period is twelve (12) hours.

All continuing education must be documented. Applicants are responsible for acquiring and submitting documentation of attendance, the number of contact hours, instructor/provider information, dates, and content descriptions. Transcripts, certificates of completion, written verification from the provider, and other documentation may be accepted. For additional details, please see the Education Policy.

The Minnesota Certification Board does not accept self-guided learning, therapeutic education, participation in self-help meetings, general staff meetings, supervision, staff rounds, or case management as continuing education.
